Itinerary for October 17, 2010

Day 1 ~ Overnight Flight to Rome

Today you board your overnight flight to Rome.

Day 2 ~ Arrive Rome ~ Check into Hotel

After arriving in Rome you are transferred to your first-class (3 star) hotel for your included one night stay. The rest of the day is free for you to explore this ancient capital.

Day 3 ~ Travel to Tuscany

Today you will transfer to Montecatini, located in the heart of Tuscany and check into your first-class (3 star) hotel. (D)

Days 4 - 6 ~ Montecatini at Leisure

Breakfast at the hotel each morning. Enjoy three full days at leisure in the magnificent city. A summer resort, Montecatini is a wealthy and popular watering hole lying at the foot of the Pistoian mountains. The baths and spas date back to the fourteenth century and nowadays there are nine fully functioning 'terme' or spas spread around the town. Elegant, peaceful and relaxing, they make for perfect resting places. Enjoy a glass of enriched water, or take the plunge for the full treatment ... you'll be in illustrious company. Previous visitors include Rossini, Verdi, Princess Grace, Orson Welles, Clark Gable, Douglas Fairbanks and assorted European royalty. Verdi was particularly taken, searching for eternal youth here each year for 25 years. Don't miss the opportunity to ride the funicular to Montecatini Alto, the old city, where the view is spectacular. Dinner at the hotel each evening. (B, D)

Day 7 ~ Transfer to Civitavecchia - Board Ship

Breakfast at the hotel. Today you will be transferred to the Port of Civitavecchia, located approximately five hours from Montecatini. Here you will board the beautiful, 138,000-ton, Navigator of the Seas. She carries 3,114 guests, is 1,020 feet long and has a cruising speed of 23.7 knots. The ship is scheduled to sail at 5:00 pm. (B, L, D, MB)

Day 8 ~ Provence (Marseille), France

(11am-8pm) Marseille, the largest port in the Mediterranean and the second largest city in France, serves as your gateway to the lush fertile region of Provence and all its cultural contributions to gastronomic excellence, Impressionistic art, and ancient architecture.

Day 9 ~ Barcelona, Spain

(8am-6pm) Located on the Mediterranean Sea, Barcelona is Spain's most cosmopolitan city. It is especially well known for its vitality and style, as you will see on Las Ramblas, Barcelona's main thoroughfare. Among those worthy of attention, are the works of the legendary architect Antonio Gaudi.

Day 10 ~ Cartagena, Spain

(10am-5pm) In the southeast of Spain on the Mediterranean Sea, you'll find a natural harbor surrounded by five hills, welcome to the seaport known as Cartagena. The port is rich in ancient and maritime history. The town is walled, the harbor defended by forts, and Roman ruins are scattered throughout. Let the adventure begin!

Day 11 ~ Malaga, Spain

(7am-6pm) A bustling coastal city and the capital of Costa del Sol, Malaga is the second largest port in Spain and one of Spain's main commercial centers. One of the most interesting places to explore is the old historic quarter dating back nearly 800 years. The birthplace of Pablo Picasso, Malaga boasts miles of beautiful beaches, picturesque gardens and fantastic weather, making it a perfect vacation destination.

Day 12 ~ Fun Day At Sea

Enjoy a day at sea with a visit to the spa for a luxurious massage; watch a good movie or try your luck in the casino, the choice is yours!

Day 13 ~ Tenerife, Canary Islands

(9am-5pm) Scattered 300 miles across the Atlantic Ocean lie Spain's Canary Islands. This volcanic archipelago is quite diverse due to the age difference among the islands. The largest of the seven Canary Islands is Tenerife. It is approximately 790 square miles in size and dominated by Mount Teide, the highest peak on Spanish territory. Called the "Island of Eternal Spring" by the locals Tenerife offers idyllic weather, fragrant fruit trees and charming locals.

Days 14 - 20 ~ Fun Days At Sea

The Navigator of the Seas has so much to offer so enjoy seven days at sea to explore every nook and cranny! Navigator of the Seas...a cruise ship or a work of art? Once on board we think you'll agree this cruise ship is a revolutionary masterpiece if ever there was one, not only does it sail effortlessly through the waters of the Atlantic, it contains some of the cruise industry's most amazing features; a rock-climbing wall, a basketball court, an ice-skating rink and an in-line skating track. Dare we say there's more? What about a five-story theatre, a casino, a miniature golf course and a spectacular three-story dining room? This 138,000-ton nautical wonder has it all.

Day 21 ~ Transfer Home

The Navigator of the Seas arrives at Port Everglades this morning. After debarking, collect your luggage and board the motorcoach for your transfer to our standard drop-off locations with wonderful memories of your Tuscany & Italy to Florida Transatlantic cruise.

ITINERARY for APRIL 10, 2010
